The destruction of the Spanish fleet at Santiago, was not due to the cowardice of Cervera or his men, but to the superior marksmanship and bravery of the Americans.

We are glad to note a decided improvement in the Tallahassee Floridian under it's new management.

Not the least of the good news of the week was the announcement that Lieut. Hobson and his men had been exchanged.

The more a pneumatic tire is blown up the bigger it gets, but the more a married man is blown up the smaller he feels.—Ex.

I guess in this time the U.S. has spread the Eagle's wing over the Hawaiian Islands to protect them from free trade with other nations.

The Spanish Government will not ask for peace until her armies are either captured or driven off from all the Islands for which the United States is contesting.

An Alabama woman has named her twins Fitzhugh Lee and Joseph Wheeler, but a Pennsylvania woman went her one better by naming her triplets Sampson Schley and Dewey, and Dewey was a girl, too.—Ex.

President McKinley has expressed his determination to capture Santiago and every Spanish soldier defending that city if it takes the entire American army to do it, and Spain need apply for no other terms than absolute surrender.

A young man was fined $10 in New York city the other day for flirting with an old maid. This young man is a fool. Why don't he come to Tallahassee where there are no old maids to flirt with.—Floridian. Or to Waukulla where the pretty girls are not allowed to get over seventeen.

The Methodist Episcopal book agents at Nashville, Tenn., who received $288,000 from the United States for indemnity for war claims, in favor of superannuated and missionary preachers, which was paid into the hands of Barbee and Smith, made a rather strange disposition of the funds. Stahlman got $100,000 for his lobby service and $188,000 over to pay all the debts of the House, and but very little to the missionaries and broken down preachers, and Congress passed a resolution to investigate the matter.

Killing At Buckhorn.

Antney Bradham, an old and respected colored citizen, came in Saturday night and surrendered himself to Sheriff Walker, saying that he had killed George Ganey, another negro, at Buckhorn, near Ashmore, where both the parties lived. County Judge Giles, accompanied by Sheriff Walker, went to the scene of the tragedy Sunday and held an inquest.

Bradham was found guilty of murder by the coroner's jury, denied bond, and jailed.

Bradham it seems found Ganey, in company with his (Bradham's) idiotic daughter a quarter of a mile from home, holding her hand and pulling her one way, while she held back and tried to go the other. When Bradham came up, Ganey run, but stopped at about fifteen yards and called to Bradham that he wanted to talk with him, but Bradham threw up his gun and fired the fatal shot.

Antney Bradham is an honest upright old darkey, and public sentiment is with him.

That sad look in Mr. Lum Harrell's eye, is not because his girl has kicked him but because he is no longer Waukulla's champion hunter. Mr. Wright Walker Jr. went forth last Wednesday and after hunting forty miles through swamps, hammocks and limesinks, he finally discovered a large cat squirrel. After an exciting struggle, he managed to plug the animal between the eyes with his trusty shot gun. After killing the squirrel Wright was too weak and tired to bring him home, but he is now wearing the hunters championship belt, and Lum will never redeem himself until he goes and kills another mocking-bird.

Columbus, the little son of Mr. Noah Council, got hold of a bottle of carbolic acid last Wednesday, and not knowing what it was took a swallow of the fiery liquid. When it began to burn, the little fellow tried to spit it out, and in doing so the acid flew all over his breast and arms. Dr. Hall was sent for but before he arrived the acid had burned into the flesh everywhere it had touched, and the little fellow was suffering terribly, but under the treatment of Dr. Hall it is hoped he will soon be all right.

During the thunderstorm last Thursday evening, a bolt of lightning passed through a window into Mr. J. W. Farley's house. After completely demolishing a rifle standing in the room and shocking Mrs. Farley into insensibility the current passed out through another window, knocked a large piece off of a post on the front porch, and passed into the ground. Several other members of the family who were in other parts of the house were slightly shocked.

Tax Collector R. B. Council lost $37.50 in money and warrants one night last week, and did not miss it until next day, when Mr. Tom Mash brought him one of the warrants for $22, which had been picked up by one of Mr. Mash's children. He immediately began to investigate, and found all but five dollars of the lost money.

Mr. J. W. Duval has bought a home in Tallahassee, and is preparing to move his mercantile business there from Carrabelle. Joe is an old Waukulla boy and has scores of friends here who wish him much success in his new field.

The many friends of Capt. W. W. Walker will regret to learn that he is laid up with a cancer on his face. He is being treated by Dr. Hunt and it is hoped the cancer can be checked before it develops a more serious character.

While out squirrel hunting last Friday evening, Messrs. C. S. Alligood, J. J. Harrell, and R. B. Council suddenly came upon a flock of wild turkeys. The three bold hunters were naturally very much frightened at the sight of so many turkeys at this season of the year, and during the excitement caused by the fluttering up of the flock, their guns were accidentally discharged. When the turkeys were gone, and the excitement had somewhat quieted down, they discovered, to their sorrow(?) that they had mortally wounded eight out of the bunch, six of which fell to the lot of Mr. Council. The deceased victims of the sad tragedy were brought home by the hunters, and it is needless to say their bodies were well taken care of.

The Normal School still has a good attendance, and the ease and grace with which Prof. Demilly simplifies his work is drawing much praise from the patrons.

Col. F. W. Duval has not been sitting around studying for nothing. He put his driver to plowing around his store the other day to see if his business would grow. He is now waiting for results. If it is a success he will make an application for a patent.

Rev. A. J. Quattlebaum, who accompanied by Rev. Taylor held a big revival here last December, will be at Sopchoppy on the first Sunday in August to hold a series of his tent meetings there.

Mr. H. N. Walker, lost a fine horse one day last week. He had driven 45 miles during the day, and on the way home the horse was taken with staggers, and died before morning.

The many friends of Mr. E. L. Hutchinson the genial and ever popular Knight of the Grip, will be pained to learn that he is quite sick with slow fever at his home at Quincy.
